Appointed Advisor. Mother would like to provide care for the child when Father is unable to provide care as opposed to a third party babysitter and Mother has concerns that at least on one occasion during Father's parenting time, he has not appropriately supervised the child. Mother also asserts that the parties share joint custody with Father having final say but the order requires them to confer and she contends that Father is not taking her wishes into consideration.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED the parties shall cooperate with the Court Appointed Advisor, provide any and all documents requested, and sign medical releases.

Rebecca Watson has previously served as the Court Appointed Advisor and given that she is familiar with the parties, the Court would like to have Ms. Watson appointed again.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED setting a Review Hearing re: the CAA report on September 4, 2012 at 9:00 a.m. (15 minutes allotted).
